COOLIDGE MAY ASK DAUGHERTY'S RESIGNATION TUESDAY

EARLY ACTION BY PRESIDENT IS INTIMATED

Statement Expected as Result of Secret Conference

PARLEY AT WHITE HOUSE

McLean and Slemp Quizzed by Senate Probers

WASHINGTON — (United Press)—A public statement of President Coolidge's attitude towards the efforts of both Republican and Democratic senators to force Attorney General Daugherty out of the cabinet may be made following Tuesday's cabinet meeting, it was intimated today.

A secret conference was held at the White House Sunday between the president and Senator Borah, Maine.

Borah, summoned to the conference by Mr. Coolidge, declined to make public his purpose, but quarters close to the president feel he is getting ready to tell the country just where he stands with relation to Attorney General Daugherty.

All members of the cabinet have been notified to be present at Wednesday's session. Secretary of Labor Davis cancelled a trip to Florida to attend.

McLean and Slemp

ARE QUESTIONED

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—The senate oil committee held another day of surprises today when it resumed hearings after a day's recess.

Taking up the trail of the $100,000 loan made to A. R. Fall by Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post, the committee was told by officials of two Washington banks that McLean's checking balance in either of them was more than $100,000 in December, 1921.

The publisher had informed the committee he gave Fall checks aggregating $100,000 on that two banks during that period but that they were returned un cashed.

C. Bascom Semp, secretary to President Coolidge, was questioned about a visit he made to Palm Beach while Mr. Fall was there last December, and January.

The secretary declared he talked with several times, asked him for the full story about the oil charges and advised him to tell everything. Fall replied he said that he had nothing to say.

James H. Bader, vice president of the Commercial National, produced a check showing that McLean's net worth in that bank was $58,548 on December 1, 1921, and that this was wiped by checks to less than $10,000 by the middle of December.

Bader said his bank would have covered an overdraft by McLean but could not recall that the Washington publisher ever had overdrafts on his account.

The president's secretary said McLean and Fall were at Palm Beach at the same time as was there in December and January and that he had conversations with them but they were not serious, confidential.

Mr. Slemp told the committee he had only at lunch or dinner once or twice a week before Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, called at Palm Beach to examine Edward B. McLean, publisher of the Washington Post.

He said the committee to know, "that I was not down there on any mission for anybody, but for health and recreation."

Semp testified that the oil matter was discussed generally at his dinner with Fall and McLean, but he did not ask the former interior secretary the facts were.

Young man, read the record," Semp quoted Fall as replying, "I have said all I have to say on the subject."

Semp said that after Senator Walsh was at Palm Beach he advised Fall to tell the committee "all."

MINISTER, YOUNG WOMAN MISSING

Search is Begun for Former Pastor at Mansfield

MANSFIELD — (United Press)—Police in Buffalo and Syracuse, N. Y., have been asked by his wife to look for Rev. J. Harold Johnson, until recently pastor of Pilgrim Church here.

A choir girl who has lived with the Johnson family, also is missing. Mrs. Johnson told Police Chief McClure, both have been missing since February 13, when Johnson left, supposedly to attend a missionary conference in New York.

"I hope he will come back," Mrs. Johnson said. "We have a daughter 19 months old. When he left he kissed me and said 'I hope everything will come out all right.'"

Mrs. Johnson said she married the minister in New York, where she was doing mission work among immigrants of Ellis Island. They came to Mansfield, her former home, and he was chosen pastor of Pilgrim Church. He resigned recently and was presented with a purse by his congregation, with which to attend the mission conference, it was learned.

Mrs. Johnson told Chief McClure she had been advised that her husband had been seen at a Cleveland hotel, shortly after he left his home.

"DOLLAR DAY" IS WEDNESDAY

Many Fine Bargains Promised by Lima Merchants

First semi-annual observance of "Dollar Day" for 1924 will be an event of Wednesday in practically every Lima business establishment.

Enthusiasm which merchants have entered the pre-spring selling carnival strongly indicate a record sales day with high class merchandise offered at prices so low they hurt.

Thousands of "Dollar Day" advertising cards are displayed in stores, in windows and placed at conspicuous places to attract customers to take advantage of the high quality merchandise to be placed on sale at one dollar for the one day only.

In a special Dollar Day edition to be issued Tuesday night the bargains will be broadcast to neighboring towns to further stimulate the buying interest in Lima.

Doors of Dollar Day merchants will be thrown open early Wednesday morning and extra clerks hired to accommodate the expected heavy buying of bargain seekers who generally visit many stores to take advantage of the unusual bargains offered.

CLUB ASKS COUNTY'S HELP IN PAYING FOR SIGNS

Cooperation of the county in paying one-half the cost of several danger signs to be posted along the Harding highway, was sought before the county commissioners Monday by James I. Heffner, secretary of the Lima Automobile club.

The signs are six feet square, and have a red reflector which will catch the rays of headlights at night.

It is proposed to place the signs on sharp curves and on dead ends of the road. Several motorists have gone off the road recently at the points where the warning signals are to be put up.

Leap Year Babe To Get $10

First American and The News Will Make Deposit for First Born Here

Next Friday will be February 29. It has been four years since we had an extra day in the shortest month. There are several persons in Lima whose birthday falls on February 29. Undoubtedly a number of babies will come into this world next Friday and, therefore, will have a birthday only once in four years.

The first baby born in Lima on February 29, next Friday, will be started off in life with a $10 savings deposit, the gift of The First American Bank & Trust Co. and The Lima News.

The parents of babies born Friday should have their doctors report the exact hour and minute the child comes into the world. It will be upon the time reported by the attending physician that the award will be made, their report being final. In case two should be born at exactly the same time, the full amount will be given each.

This offer is made to encourage birth in the first Leap year baby born in this city. The $10 deposit may be the basis of a vast fortune. None can tell. In any event, it will be a good start and if added to as it should be by parents, it will be a neat sum by the time the little one celebrates its next birthday.

J. M. COX FORMALLY ENTERS RACE

Presidential Candidacy Papers Filed With Secretary Brown

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press)—Former Governor James M. Cox of Dayton, the Democratic candidate for president in 1920, today filed with secretary of state Brown, official authorization for candidates for delegates to the Democratic national convention to use his name as first choice for president. At the same time former Governor James E. Campbell filed authorization for candidates to name him as their second choice for president.

In connection with his declaration of candidacy, Cox formally authorized Attorney Robert S. Hayes of Columbus to act as his representative in filing all necessary papers.

Hayes, in accordance with this authorization, asked that Cox's name be placed on the primary election ballot, thus formally entering Cox in the state-wide presidential primary of April 29.

In his declaration of candidacy, which was made at Miami, Fla., February 14, Cox says that he is a member of the Democratic party and is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president of the United States.

The entrance of Cox into the presidential primary will give Democratic voters a chance to register their choice as between him and any other candidate that may enter the Ohio contest, independent of the vote that may be cast for delegates of the various presidential candidates. Under the Ohio primary system, it is possible for a presidential candidate to get a majority of the popular preferential vote and yet not get a majority of the delegates.

All the papers in connection with Cox's declaration were brought to the secretary of state's office by Mr. Campbell.

NURSE SOUGHT IN DOUBLE MURDER

Jealousy Believed Motive for Mysterious Chicago Tragedy

BUSINESS MAN ALSO HUNTED

Slain Bride Daughter of Wealthy Ohio Oil Operator

(BULLETIN) NEW ORLEANS — (Associated Press)—Orlando Horton and Morris "Freddie" Curtis and their wives wanted in Chicago in connection with the murder of John Duffy and his wife, were arrested here this forenoon.

CHICAGO — (Associated Press)—Investigation of the mysterious slayings Friday of John Duffy and his wife is centering on a jealousy theory as a result of disclosures said to have been made by Ruby Downing of Louisville, Ky., an intimate of the couple, brought here for questioning.

Authorities in other cities have been asked to look for a Chicago nurse named Dolly, said by the police to have been a former sweetheart of Duffy, and for James Zolar, former business promoter for a Memphis or Nashville firm.

Zolar at one time employed Mrs. Duffy, then Miss Leah Exley, as his secretary in Columbus, Ohio, according to Miss Downing's alleged statement to the police.

According to the story Miss Downing is alleged to have told Harold Levy, assistant state's attorney, the Exley girl, daughter of a wealthy retired oil operator and farmer of Norwalk, Ohio, at one time attended a California university.

Disatisfied with farm life, according to the story, the girl went to Columbus, Ohio, where she met Zolar. Later she left him and went to Louisville where she received letters making threats from Zolar, Miss Downing said.

Duffy and his wife, who is being sought in connection with the slayings, visited Louisville last fall and later Miss Exley came to Chicago.

She and Duffy were married in Louisville, one week prior to the finding of their bodies.

Meanwhile officials in Indianapolis are investigating a theory that the double slayings were planned in that city. Inquiry there has disclosed that Morris "Freddie" Curtis, believed to have been the blonde youth seen in the apartment shared by Horton and Duffy, left Indianapolis last Tuesday, ostensibly for Detroit, accompanied by his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Horton.

Duffy's body was found Friday morning with three bullet holes in the head, lying in a snow bank near Argo, Ill., a suburb.

His wife's body, a bullet hole thru her head, was found a dozen hours later on a day-report in the apartment they shared with the Hortons.

Police are unable to account for the significance of two sets of wine glasses beside a partly filled whisky flask used shortly before or after the slaying in the apartment. The woman was shot while asleep, detectives say.

MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE

W. A. Wilson Slips on Stone and Slides Into Ottawa River

W. A. Wilson, of the Manhattan Hotel had a narrow escape from serious injury Sunday night when he slipped on a stone and fell into the Ottawa river.

Wilson was walking along the bank of the river, he told police, when he stepped on a loose stone and before he knew what was happening he had slid to the stream and was in the icy water.

After several futile attempts to climb back to the top of the bank, he began to call for help. His cries were heard by Mrs. Acres, 342 E. Union-st., who called police.

Police-men assisted him out of the river and took him to police station where he got warm and dried out his clothing. He was later taken to his room.

TWO AUTOS CRASH G. H. Ridd, 123 Master-av., Ft. Wayne, Ind., and C. B. Kessler, also of Ft. Wayne narrowly escaped serious injuries Monday morning when their automobile in which they were riding collided with another driven by Dr. Paul Stueber of this city, at the corner of Market and Jameson-avts. IT'S STILL PLAIN EDITH ALLEN

Edith Allen (above), movie actress, was bitten with the prevalent "name-changing bug." She wanted something that sounded lively. So she picked "Hedda Lind." But it wouldn't work. She might have been Hedda Lind to herself, but she was Edith Allen to everybody else. So back it went to plain Edith Allen.

RUM DEFENDANT MUST TALK WAY OUT OF JAIL

Court Orders Man Locked up "Till He Tells Truth"

"Take him back to jail, and keep him there until he gets ready to tell the truth."

That was the order given by Judge J. H. Hamilton, in probate court Monday when James Lucas, 35, charged with possession of whisky was arraigned before him.

Lucas pleaded guilty, but denied that he had ever sold anything, or was ever in trouble before. His assertions were supported by his wife who was present in court.

"Where did you get this whisky?" Judge Hamilton asked.

"I bought it from a foreigner. I don't know who he was."

It was then that the court instructed Sheriff Brown to take the defendant back to jail.

"When he gets ready to talk," he said, "bring him back."

Lucas' wife, Judge Hamilton explained will depend on his past record. He said he would inquire concerning the man's record in criminal court.

Lucas was granted when court officers, armed with a search warrant, raided his flat in the Hotel de Main-st. Sunday night. They found eight quarts of alleged whisky. A number of young men were found around the place when the officers entered. It is asserted they were customers.

PETITION IS FILED WITH CITY CLERK

Soot from St. Rita's Hospital is Nuisance, Citizens Claim

MANY SIMILAR COMPLAINTS

Commission is Urged to Act in Matter Immediately

Citizens' fight for abatement of smoke nuisances within the city will be again started Monday night in commission chambers, with presentation of a petition demanding immediate action.

Property owners residing in the vicinity of St. Rita's hospital are indicators of the latest move to force the city to a show-down on the time aged complaint.

In a petition filed with City Clerk Frank Hume, property owners object against smoke nuisance from St. Rita's hospital power house, claiming resulting property damage, and formally request official consideration.

Numerous complaints against the White Mountain Creamery, W. Wayne-st., the Y. M. C. A. and the City hospital, stamp them as the most objectionable, along with St. Rita's, in the unsuccessful warfare waged for years for smoke abatement.

Deney, black smoke curling from the smoke stacks, carrying particles of smoke, prohibit house wives from hanging out family washings, damage household furnishings and in addition to damaging houses paint create a general nuisance, citizens reported in their numerous complaints to the city.

Numerous warnings sounded by the city officials and promised cooperation for smoke abatement by offenders has evidently failed to better conditions they point out for citizens under the new they have been working.

Smoke ordinances are enforced in all cities with manufacturers and public utilities cooperating, complaining, but almost actively at local level there gives manifold trouble, friction with no legislative restrictions then exists.

2 SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH GIRL

Result of Blackhand Plot, Cleveland Wife Declares

DEFENDING HOME, SHE SAYS

Claims Husband and Father Threatened by Gang

CLEVELAND — (United Press) — Two men were killed last night in a fight with a girl, the wife of one of the slain men declared today. She said she was defending her home from a gang of men who threatened her husband and father.

The girl is Mrs. Nettie Ansell. According to the story, Mrs. Ansell told police that the men were members of the blackhand gang and the shooting was the culmination of a blackmail plot against her father, her husband and two roomers.

She said the attack Sunday night came after the men had made three previous visits to her home. She said she was prepared, and her cousin Philip Ansell and five other men were in the house.

She said the men gave them until Sunday night to accede to their demands and threatened violence if they refused to comply.

About 8 p. m., she said, three men came to her home on their hands and knees. She said she sent her father, mother and their seven children, with four friends of her father, upstairs.

She said she remained downstairs with her sister, Ruth, 17. The lights were extinguished.

Hearing a step on the front porch, Mrs. Ansell said she and her sister went to a table where she had placed four loaded revolvers. After the first volley she said she seized the pistols and began to return the fire, thru a side window. She fired two shots thru the window, Mrs. Ansell said, when she was attracted by a noise at the side door. One of the men outside started pounding. She fired thru the panels and the shooting from the outside ceased.

Police called. Three bullets entered the home of H. Stucky, a neighbor. Terrified, he called the police. The patrolman found Marino still conscious lying on the walk in front of the house. Marino's body, with a gaping bullet wound in his abdomen, was found in the front yard of his home, three doors away.

Police found revolvers beside each man. The chambers were all empty.

Police took Mrs. Ansell to a precinct station. They will hold her for further questioning. After telling police immediately after the shooting that she alone fired at the men, the girl early today said her friends had come to the house to help defend it. She said the four men in the house also fired but had left before police arrived.

HAITI ENJOYS BIG ECONOMIC GAIN

Trade Advance Begun in 1922 Continues, Report Shows

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti — (Associated Press) — A summary of the annual report of the receiver general of customs for Haiti shows a remarkable continuance of the economic improvement begun in 1922. The gain in trade is the more noteworthy when comparison is made with the conditions true of the great majority of countries in the Caribbean.

The collection of customs for the fiscal year totaled $6,113,750, exceeding last year's figures by a margin of $1,194,569. December, the highest monthly collection for the fiscal year, with $758,771, topped that of the preceding year by $62,513.

The volume of trade for the year was $29,575,817, a gain of $7,512,529. This year the exports amounted to $14,591,912 as against $10,712,219, or an increase of $3,878,692. The imports for the year were $14,983,905, or an increase of $1,807,302. Whereas in the fiscal year of 1922 the imports exceeded the exports by $1,378,961, the fiscal year just passed shows an excess of exports to the amount of $123,049.

The two principal exports, coffee and cotton, go almost wholly to France. The rest of collecting one dollar after 1923 was $9,937 as compared to $9,947 for the preceding year.

Haiti's shipping figures also reflect clearly the splendid year of business. The number of ships, both foreign and coastwise, that entered her ten principal ports this year was 1,845, with a combined tonnage of 913,346. In 1922 the number was 1,361 with a tonnage of 623,577. The ship cleared this year totaled 1,830 with a tonnage of 93,733, whereas last year 1,257 with a tonnage of 84,554 cleared.

The carrying trade of imports by nationality of vessels for the fiscal year shows the United States far outstripping all others, with more than 80 percent of the whole.

The total collections from all sources by the receiver general for the fiscal year, including the balance of $1,194,569 carried over from the preceding fiscal period, amounted to $9,922,393. Total expenditures and disbursements amounted to $8,792,211. The balance for the year was $2,639,182, a gain of $1,164,422.

"SINGLE TAX" IS ADVOCATED

Herbert S. Bigelow Addresses Open Forum Sunday

"Lima would be, in twenty years time, the biggest city in Ohio if it could say to industries, 'Welcome to our city; situate your factories here tax-free,'" Herbert S. Bigelow, Cincinnati, told the Lima Open Forum at Trinity church Sunday afternoon. Bigelow is an exponent of the single tax theory.

"When Chicago was incorporated as a city, it owned one square mile of land, now the heart of that metropolis. In a few years city officials sold nearly all the tract to private individuals who are now reaping a vast harvest from their investment. Only a small piece was retained because it could not readily be sold, and that is now paying a large revenue to the city treasury."

"If the city of Chicago had kept the land for its own interest, property holders there would not now be compelled to pay taxes because the income derived from the rental of the land would more than defray the expenses of the city. If Lima owned a piece of land in the same condition, citizens and property holders here would not have to pay taxes, and more big factories would locate here as a direct result. Lima could then not help but grow by leaps and bounds."

Bigelow is a disciple of Henry George, the founder of the single tax idea.

APPEAL FOR AID TO GERMAN CHILDREN MADE

WASHINGTON — Relief for the children of Germany will "not only save the starving youngsters," Major General Allen, who was commander in chief of the American army of occupation, declared in an appeal made public today, by the federal council of churches, but it will help American farmers by taking surplus food supplies and is in the interest of peace.

"It will keep a nation of 62,000,000 persons from political and social chaos," he said. "Germany is a hungry nation. A hungry nation is always dangerous not only to itself but also to others. The United States is regarded by the Germans as being the nation most responsible for their defeat. Help at this time will turn enmity into friendship."

TWO LARGE BUSINESSES BLOCKS GUTTED BY FIRE

ALLIANCE — Fire originating from a furnace in the P. R. Speddel-bldg Broadway, Salem, about 5 o'clock Saturday night caused loss estimated at nearly a quarter million dollars to two large business blocks.

The fire spread from the Speddel-bldg to the adjoining Frank Moff-bldg, completely gutting it. A double brick wall protected the J. A. Selwartz department store, on the north, while a 15-foot alley protected the First National Bank-bldg on the north.

Alliance firemen responded to an appeal for assistance when Salem firemen were unable to cope with the blaze. Four companies battled the flames for about six hours. Several firemen were overcome with smoke.

CASH IN GERMANY
SURPRISESAmount Far Beyond Expectations of Experts

ABLE TO PAY ON WAR DEBT

Discovery is Made by Reparations Committee

PARIS — (Associated Press) — The committee of reparations experts headed by Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, began today its final task — the preparation of its report to the reparations commission. The experts are anxious to frame a plan which will require no revision. The secret of the conclusions reached by the committee with the exception of the few fundamental points already revealed, is still being well kept. All the guesses thus far hazarded are declared by members of the committee to be well below the mark, especially the estimates as to the amount of German capital available.

GREAT SURPRISE

One of the greatest surprises the committee met with in Germany, it is reported, was the discovery that the amount of foreign money in the country was far beyond the expectations of the experts and to the surprise of the committee.

The committee was asked yesterday by the commission whether it was possible to pay the war debt in kind, that is, in goods and services.

Who want whiter, safer, cleaner teeth

This free test
This is a test which millions now have made. You see the results in whiter teeth in every circle now.

It combats film
The great object is to fight film on teeth—that vicious film you feel under old methods, much of that film remains. It clings and stays. It becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. The result is teeth ever clouded and unclear.

Now dental science, after long research, offers ways to fight that film. One disintegrates the film. One removes it without harmful action.

Protect the Enamel
Pepsodent disintegrates the film, then removes it with an agent far softer than enamel.

Personality of Democratic Member of Oil Council Revealed

PASSED BY THE SPOTLIGHT

Ability to Capitalize Accomplishments Declared Lacking

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Atlee Pomerene named Teapot Dome prosecutor by President Coolidge, has never found time for anything but work.

He looks out on life thru serious spectacles. His entire public career has been characterized by ceaseless labor and application to the task at hand. He is a total stranger to recreation in any form.

During his 12 years as United States senator, Pomerene was seldom in the public eye, yet few Democratic senators were more influential in shaping legislation than the man from Canton, Ohio.

The spotlight passed Pomerene by, because he lacked the ability to capitalize his accomplishments. He was never a politician. Others more versed in the ways of publicity frequently ran away with the credit that was rightfully his.

Pomerene is tall, lean and dark skinned; his forehead is high and his fringe of hair black.

He usually wears a black coat black trousers, a "boiled" white shirt and "choker" collar and a narrow black bow tie.

His dress suggests the stage makeup of an undertaker.

Serious minded, unusually sensitive, he rarely smiles or jokes.
Criticism hurts him deeply.

Atlee Pomerene's seriousness and high sense of duty undoubtedly are heredities of his boyhood.

He was raised on a farm in Berlin, Holmes co., Ohio. Atlee and his 10 brothers and sisters each had a certain set of chores and each was held strictly accountable by a stern parent.

Dacosta, an older brother was blind. Atlee not only mastered his own lessons but acted as instructor and reader to Dacosta.

In 1882 Atlee married Mary Berkman of Canton. The event, which was to have marked the happiest day of his life, was tinged with tragedy.

He had wired Dacosta, then a minister in Pennsylvania to come to Canton and perform the ceremony.
Dacosta started and was killed in a train wreck.

Dr. Peter Pomerene wanted his boys to become physicians and named most of them after famous doctors. But Atlee, after leaving Princeton studied law in Cincinnati and then went to Canton to practice.

He served two terms as city solicitor and one as county prosecutor. Some of the cases he handled were of nationwide interest, notably the trial of Mrs. George who was charged with shooting the brother-in-law of the then President,
Mr. Kinley.

Pomerene lost that case, but he was opposed by the ablest legal talent of the day.

In 1910 he was elected lieutenant governor of Ohio. The next year he "hooked" the machine ran by the Senate against Boss Henry and was elected. He was re-elected six years later, defeating Myron T. Herrick.

While Pomerene was in the Senate his secretary, realizing the necessity for exercise, urged Pom-erene to walk from his home to the office.

Pomerene tried it a day or two but found it fatiguing. Then for a while, he walked part of the way.
Mrs. Pomerene picked him up in her electric after the first mile or so. But soon he gave up even this pretense of exercise.

He went to no ball games, played no golf, attended the theater only when his wife dragged him there.
There is no time in his life for

ATLEE POMERENE

frivolities or amusement. With him the job at hand is the whole thing.
There is nothing else.

In the Senate Pomerene was a member of important committees—banking and currency, foreign relations, interstate commerce and privileges and elections.

As chairman of the latter committee he directed the inquiry that ultimately resulted in discrediting Senator Newberry of Michigan and forcing him from the Senate.

Pomerene turned up the facts of the Lord Newberry case, other senators made speeches about them.
He did the work they got the credit for.

He was one of the leaders in the fight that resulted in enactment of the first child labor law. Later he secured enactment of the Admission eight hour day law. He worked for the bill creating the Department of Labor and the child labor bureau. He supported practically every bill on child labor endorsed—but he voted for the Esch-Cummings transportation act and was defeated for a third term by the labor vote.

2 SLAIN IN FIGHT WITH GIRL

Result of Blackhand Plot, Cleveland Wife Declares

DEFENDING HOME, SHE SAYS

Claims Husband and Father Threatened by Gang

CLEVELAND — (United Press) — Two men were killed last night and a third wounded in a gun battle with a 19-year-old girl on the west side, in which more than a score of bullets were fired and lives of pedestrians and occupants of adjoining houses were endangered.

The dead men are: Mike Marino, 25, Rafael Tranco, 25.

Both were shot when the shooter, Tony Savino, 31, was arrested early today. He is alleged to have been the third man in the battle.

The girl is Mrs. Nettie Anelli. According to the story Mrs. Anelli told police, the men were members of the blackhand gang and the shooting was the culmination of a blackmail plot against her father, her husband and two roomers.

She said the attack Sunday night came after the men had made three previous visits to her home. She said she was prepared, and her cousin Phillip Anelli, and five other men were in the house.

She said the men gave them until Sunday night to accede to their demands and threatened violence if they refused to comply.

About 8 p. m., she said, three men came toward her home on their hands and knees. She said she sent her father, mother and three other children, with four friends of her father, upstairs.

She said she remained downstairs, with her sister, Ruth, 17. The lights were extinguished.

Hearing a step on the front porch, Mrs. Anelli said she and her sister crept to a table where she had placed four loaded revolvers.

After the first volley she said she seized the pistols and began to return the fire, thru a side window. She fired two shots thru the window, Mrs. Anelli said, when she was attracted by a noise at the side door. One of the men outside started pounding. She fired thru the window and the shooting from the outside ceased.

POLICE CALLED

Three bullets entered the home of H. Stoker, a neighbor. Terrified, he called the police.

The patrolman found Marino still conscious lying on the floor in front of the house. Marino's body, with a gaping bullet wound in his abdomen, was found in the front yard of his home, three doors away.

Police found revolvers beside each man. The chambers were almost empty.

Police took Mrs. Anelli to a precinct station. They will hold her for further questioning.

After telling police immediately after the shooting that she alone fired at the men, the girl early today said her friends had come to the house to help defend it. She said the four men in the house also fired but had left before police arrived.

HAITI ENJOYS BIG ECONOMIC GAIN

Trade Advance Begun in 1922 Continues, Report Shows

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti. (Associated Press) — A summary of the annual report of the receiver general of customs for Haiti shows a remarkable continuance of the economic improvement begun in 1922. The gain in trade is the more noteworthy when comparison is made with the conditions of the great majority of countries in the Caribbean.

The collection of customs for the fiscal year totaled $6,112,790, exceeding last year's figure by a margin of $1,194,569. December, the highest monthly collection for the fiscal year, with $588,771, topped that of the preceding year by $62,512.

The volume of trade for the year was $39,575,817, a gain of $7,513,339. This year the exports amounted to $14,591,012 as against $10,712,219, or an increase of $3,878,802. The imports for the year were $14,984,805, or an increase of $1,807,692. Whereas in the fiscal year of 1922 the imports exceeded the exports by $1,428,061, the fiscal year just passed shows an excess of exports to the amount of $343,049.

The two principal exports, coffee and cotton, go almost wholly to France. The cost of collecting one dollar for 1922 was $0.9357 as compared to $0.9417 for the preceding year.

Haiti's shipping figures also reflect clearly the epidemic year of business. The number of ships, both foreign and coastwise, that entered her ten principal harbors this year was 1,815, with a combined tonnage of 91,346. In 1922 the number was 1,361 with a tonnage of 62,577. The ship cleared this year totaled 1,830 with a tonnage of 98,732, whereas last year 1,257 with a tonnage of 58,554 cleared.

The carrying trade of imports by nationality of vessels for the fiscal year shows the United States far outstripping all others, with more than 80 percent of the whole. The total collections from all sources by the receiver general for the fiscal year, including the balance of $1,164,360 carried over from the preceding fiscal period, amounted to $9,922,903. Total expenditures and disbursements amounted to $6,392,211. The balance for the year was $2,530,782, a gain of $1,166,422.

"SINGLE TAX" IS ADVOCATED

Herbert S. Bigelow Addresses Open Forum Sunday

"Lima would be, in twenty years' time, the biggest city in Ohio if it could say to industries, 'Welcome to our city; situate your factories here tax-free,'" Herbert S. Bigelow, Cincinnati, told the Lima Open Forum at Trinity church Sunday afternoon. Bigelow is an exponent of the single tax theory.

"When Chicago was incorporated as a city, it owned one square mile of land, now the heart of that metropolis. In a few years city officials sold nearly all the tract to private individuals who are now reaping a vast harvest from their investment. Only a small piece was retained because it could not readily be sold, and that is now paying a large revenue to the city treasury."

"If the city of Chicago had kept the land for its own interest, property holders there would not now be compelled to pay taxes because the income derived from the rental of the land would more than defray the expenses of the city. If Lima owned a piece of land in the same condition, citizens and property holders here would not have to pay taxes, and more big factories would locate here as a direct result. Lima could then not help but grow by leaps and bounds."

Bigelow is a disciple of Henry George, the founder of the single tax idea.

Former Governor James M. Cox is given as his first choice for the nomination. Moore managed Cox's campaign for the nomination in 1920.

At the same time it was announced here that Cox has requested former Justice John H. Clarke of the United States supreme court to file for delegate at large from Ohio.

EDUCATION DECLARED MORE DEVASTATING THAN WAR

SAN FRANCISCO — Higher education is more devastating to the human race than war, Dr. S. J. The professor said that was "because of prevalence of small families among the highly intelligent" which tends towards the extinction of "better endowed stock."

TWO LARGE BUSINESS BLOCKS GUTTED BY FIRE

ALLIANCE — Fire originating from a trolley in the E. R. Speldellding Broadway, Salem, about 9 o'clock Saturday night caused loss estimated at nearly a quarter million dollars to two large business blocks.

The fire spread from the Speldellding to the adjoining Frank Moff-bldg, completely gutting it. A double brick wall protected the J. A. Schwartz department store, on the north, while a 15-foot alley protected the First National Bank-bldg on the north.

Alliance firemen responded to an appeal for assistance when Salem firemen were unable to cope with the blaze. Four companies battled the flames for about six hours. Several firemen were overcome with smoke.

CASH IN GERMANY SURPRISES
Amount Far Beyond Expectations of Experts
ABLE TO PAY ON WAR DEBT
Discovery is Made by Reparations Committee

PARIS — (Associated Press) — The committee of reparation experts headed by Brigadier General Cass. G. Dawes, began today its final task — the preparation of its report to the reparation commission. The experts are anxious to frame a plan which will require no revision. The secret of the conclusions reached by the committee with the exception of the few fundamental points already revealed, is still being well kept. All the guesses thus far hazarded are declared by members of the committee to be well below the mark, especially the estimates as to the amount of German capital abroad.

GREAT SURPRISE
One of the greatest surprises the experts met with in Germany, it is understood on the best authority, was the amount of foreign money inside that country. The total is said to have gone far beyond the expectations of the experts and to have contributed not a little to the individual conclusions of some members that Germany was far better able to pay than anyone had expected.

General Dawes was asked yesterday by the correspondent whether Premier Poincaré referred to him in the chamber of deputies Saturday in saying that one of the experts recently told a French colleague, "We should have been unable to reach our present results were you not in the Ruhr."

"Certainly I said it," said General Dawes, "but it is not in the Ruhr we were not in the Ruhr we experts would not be here."

"I said it as early as February, 1921," I repeated to my colleagues on the committee and I am adding it to you now because I believe it."

SALVATION ARMY MAY SPLIT
Secession of U. S. Branch from Parent Organization Threatened

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Secession of the American branch of the Salvation Army from the parent organization in England today was seen by officers of the army as a possible result of the recent action of London of General Bramwell Smith in approving an order calling on officers to quit secret societies and prohibiting them from making such affiliations in the future.

It was declared by some officers that a large number of them in this country were members of secret organizations and that compliance with the orders from London eventually will lead to secession or complete paralysis of the American branch.

It was pointed out that the Salvation Army frequently had accepted the assistance of secret societies in raising money.

An article in a recent issue of the Staff Review, the international official army organ which was said to have been approved by General Smith, speaks of secret societies as being "very evil."

It mentions alleged free use of inductments in them and secret functions, to attend which was to "condone habits too often at variance with our traditions and standard."

It combats film
The great object is to fight film on teeth—that viscous film you feel under old methods, much of that film remains. It clings and stays. It becomes discolored, then forms dingy coats. The result is teeth ever clouded and unclean.

Film holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Most of you know that these film-caused troubles are not escaped by old ways of teeth brushing.

Now dental science, after long research, offers ways to fight that film. One disintegrates the film. One removes it without harmful scouring.

Able authorities have approved these methods, after many careful tests. A new-type tooth paste has

TEAPOT DOME PROSDOESN'T GRANDSTA ECUTOR POMERENEND, SMILE OR PLAY

Personality of Democratic Member of Oil Counsel Revealed
PASSED BY THE SPOTLIGHT
Ability to Capitalize Accomplishments Declared Lacking

WASHINGTON — (Special) — Atlee Pomerene named Teapot Dome prosecutor by President Coolidge, has never found time for anything but work.

He looks out on life, thru serious spectacles. His entire public career has been characterized by ceaseless labor and application to the task at hand. He is a total stranger to recreation in any form.

During his 12 years as United States senator, Pomerene was seldom in the public eye, yet few Democratic senators were more influential in shaping legislation than the man from Canton, Ohio.

The spotlight passed Pomerene by, because he lacked the ability to capitalize his accomplishments. He was never a politician. Others more versed in the ways of publicity frequently ran away with the credit that was rightfully his.

Pomerene is tall, lean and dark-skinned; his forehead is high and his fringe of hair black.

He usually wears a black coat, black trousers, a "boiled" white shirt and "choker" collar and a narrow black bow tie.

His dress suggests the stage makeup of an undertaker.

Serious-minded, unusually sensitive, he rarely smiles or jokes. Criticism hurts him deeply.

Atlee Pomerene's seriousness and high sense of duty undoubtedly are heritages of his boyhood.

He was raised on a farm in Berlin, Holmes-co, Ohio. Atlee and his 19 brothers and sisters each had a certain set of chores and each was held strictly accountable by a stern parent.

Dacosta, an older brother, was blind. Atlee not only mastered his own lessons but acted as instructor and reader to Dacosta.

In 1892 Atlee married Mary Rockins of Canton. The event, which was to have marked the happiest day of his life, was tinged with tragedy.

He had wired Dacosta, then a minister in Pennsylvania, to come to Canton and perform the ceremony. Dacosta started and was killed in a train wreck.

Dr. Peter Pomerene wanted his boys to become physicians and named most of them after famous doctors. But Atlee, after leaving Princeton studied law in Cincinnati and then went to Canton to practice.

He served two terms as city solicitor and one as county prosecutor. Some of the cases he handled were of nation-wide interest, notably the trial of Mrs. George, who was charged with shooting the brother-in-law of the then President McKinley.

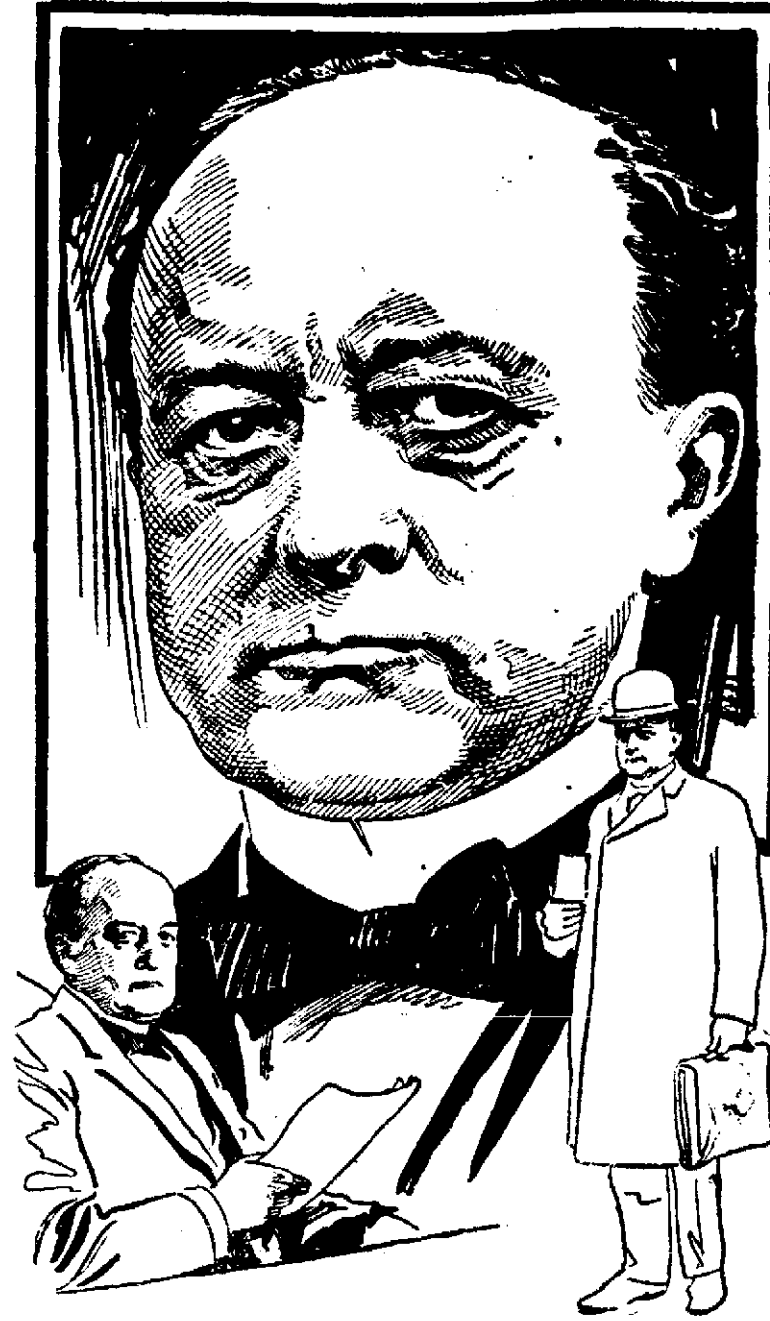

Pomerene lost that case, but he was opposed by the ablest legal talent of the day.

In 1910 he was elected lieutenant governor of Ohio. The next year he "bucked" the machine, ran for the Senate against "Boss" Hanley and was elected. He was re-elected six years later, defeating Myron T. Herrick.

While Pomerene was in the Senate, his secretary, realizing the necessity for exercise, urged Pomerene to walk from his home to the office.

Pomerene tried it a day or two but found it fatiguing. Then, for a while, he walked part of the way, Mrs. Pomerene picking him up in her electric after the first mile or so. But soon he gave up even this pretense of exercise.

He went to no ball games, played no golf, attended the theater only when his wife dragged him there. There is no time in his life for frivolities or amusement. With him, the job at hand is the whole thing. There is nothing else.

In the Senate Pomerene was a member of important committees—banking and currency, foreign relations, interstate commerce and privileges and elections.

As chairman of the latter committee he directed the inquiry that ultimately resulted in discrediting Senator Newberry of Michigan and forcing him from the Senate.

Pomerene turned up the facts of the Ford-Newberry case, other senators made speeches about them. He did the work they got the credit.

He was one of the leaders in the fight that resulted in enactment of the last child labor law, later declared unconstitutional.

He led the Senate fight for the Adamson eight-hour day law. The work for the bill creating the Department of Labor and the children's bureau. He supported practically every bill organized labor endorsed—but he voted for the Esch-Cummins transportation act and was defeated for a third term by the labor vote.

DID WONDERS FOR ENTIRE FAMILY

Mother, Father, Two Brothers All Greatly Benefitted by the Plant Juice

IT DID A WORLD OF GOOD

Another remarkable instance in which an entire family was relieved of health troubles by this celebrated herbal medicine, Plant Juice, was described to The Plant Juice Man recently by Mr. Edward Osborne, of 119 Camden street, Newark, N. J.

MR. EDWARD OSBORNE
"My mother, father, brother and myself have all been greatly benefited by your Plant Juice," Mr. Osborne said. "In my opinion, there is no mistake about the fact that your Plant Juice is a wonderful medicine."

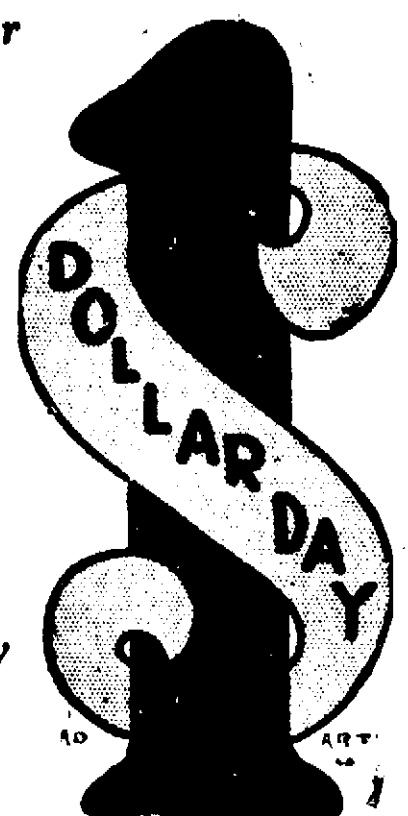

"Take my own case—I was at most a nervous wreck. I tossed and rolled all night. My kidneys and bladder were disordered, bowels were constipated, and my liver was inactive so that I got up mornings with a coated tongue and bad taste in my mouth and was often bilious and dizzy. And besides this, my blood must have been in a terrible state because there was a rash on my arms and limbs which was so feverish and itched so much that I wanted to scratch it all the time. It was worse than eczema and I had begun to think I'd never get rid of it."

"I finally decided to try your Plant Juice and am mighty glad I did now for it has done me a world of good. That awful rash is rapidly disappearing and is nearly all gone. My bowels are regular, appetite is improved and liver and kidneys work fine. I have been relieved of the biliousness and dizzy spells. And my nerves are more quieted so that I sleep better now and get up mornings feeling refreshed and, as I said before, I can say that your Plant Juice surely has done wonders for my whole family and I gladly endorse it to the public."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at the Hunter drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne street and at the Argonne drug store, oppo. Post Office.

CHECKMATING IMPOSTORS

FOR several years Lima has had a well organized welfare association. The work done by this body of trained workers has come to be taken as a matter of course and is given little thought by the average citizen. In fact it is seldom if ever that the layman thinks of this work in terms that mean most to the city, perhaps.

Cities throughout the country have similar organizations. They cooperate with each other and in this manner Lima is able to check up on any person or persons who may seek aid here and receive reliable information in the shortest possible time. In this manner impostors are kept out and funds that soon would be depleted if spent in a haphazard manner are retained for the worthy who really need them.

It requires a substantial amount of money each year to maintain the Family Welfare association. This must come for the most part from generous citizens who have the welfare of humanity at heart. While the city has been liberal in the past, it is always a struggle to obtain enough money for the ever-increasing demands occasioned by the growth of the city.

The cause is a worthy one and the work is in capable hands. It is a work one can contribute to with the knowledge that his dollars will find their way to the place where they will do the most good.

GOOD LUCK, JIM!

JIM MORTON, manager-secretary of the Board of Commerce, has resigned to go to a broader field. He is worthy of the promotion he has gained for himself. And it has been thru his own efforts that he has reached the top in his particular line in this great state.

Jim (nobody calls him anything else) once was a blacksmith. He is fonder of that, perhaps, than anything else connected with his life. For the same hard work that made him a good blacksmith down in the little village a few miles from Lima has made him one of the best retail credit men in the middle west.

When Jim Morton goes into a meeting of big merchants or big bankers or big anything else, it is amazing how much that blacksmith can tell them about their business. It is strange how many pointers he can give them on the operation of their business from start to finish and it is strange how well he can put over his argument. It has been these strange things that have been the stepping stones for Jim from the forge to the big retail organization with which he will be connected after he completes his work here.

Morton took a sick old chamber of commerce and did wonders with it. He had a heartbreaking task but that's the kind that energetic blacksmith likes best. He hammered out a new policy and then hammered things into line and hammered so well that he cleaned up the debts of the organization, some many years old, in his first year as manager. He did things with the organization none had been able to do before. He got it on its feet and going. Things have to go when Jim takes hold.

Lima will miss Jim. He has been a valuable asset. He would have done many things for the city had he continued as he started in his last job here. He will make good in his new work and he'll have more friends than any politician that ever hit Columbus.

Good luck, Jim!

NEW INTOXICANTS?

THE great inventor and scientist, Hudson Maxim, has been breaking into print during the last few days with statements in which he declares tea and coffee are intoxicants. He plans a test suit against some popular hotel in the east to attempt to ban these beverages as contrary to our present prohibition enforcement laws.

Maxim, while a renowned inventor and scientist, will not get far with this argument. If he is right, practically all of us are drunkards. And for our part, we are going to continue to be a drunkard of that sort as long as we can get two cups of "java" for breakfast to go with our favorite fig.

OUR NEW FIRE FIGHTER

LIMA has just bought a new automobile pumper for the fire department. It will handle a thousand gallons of water a minute and when pressed can pump 1,200 gallons. It is one of the latest types of fire fighting equipment and a machine that has been greatly needed in this city.

Recent fires have proved that equipment now in use was inadequate when a stubborn blaze was to be combatted. The new pumper, while expensive, may pay for itself several times over during one fire. It is money well spent.

AN ANTIQUATED REPORTER — (Hamilton, Bermuda) Up betimes to a choppy morning. With my wife, shack-sick for Francine. By boat to Riddles Bay links. There played seven holes with an Englishman, who had me down at the half-way post. Lunched a quartette with his and my Mrs.

By the beat this day, came Mrs. Dean Paul, of Lima's ultra fashionable State-street section. She, accompanied by her charming sister, Mrs. Gay, Cleveland. Also in the party were ex-Mayor A. W. and Mrs. Craver, Youngstown. He, friend of Judge William Klinger and George Quail. While a playmate as well of our own Judge, Frederic Becker. Craver is President of the Second National Bank.

Strolling yesterday, found a quiet barbery and therein an exact duplicate of Charlie Baum. His name, howbeit, was Carlos Boehm. He used the scissors like the Lima wanderer, and chews his tobacco with the same native. Like Charlie, he has worked in many shops but never in the same town. Carlos gave me a good trim.

Beat day is the big event around Bermuda hotels. The bell boys change shirts and polish their brass buttons. The room clerks simulate a haughty missing an off day. Bermuda's greatest crops are tips. The harvest starts about January 15, and is well over by April 1. Americans are the choicest fruit. As a class they throw their money away, handing out quarters, half dollars and good treasury notes as the worthless. An Englishman or a Canadian sticks to staples, (12 cents) for all trivial services, and a shilling at most. The chief of the bellboy brigade told me most Americans came with just so many hundred dollars. The length of their stay depended on how long the fund lasted. They would not be happy, he said, unless they spent it, so we try to get our share the first few days.

In the evening, one-stepped with the versatile Mrs. Gay. Then had a sarsaparilla with Samuel H. Needs, a director of The Argentine Hotel, the silent partner of Mine Host Smith and our banker Frank Colwell. So late, to bed.

NON FATTENING FOODS

With the steadily rising birth rate in America goes a constantly increasing demand for good nourishing, satisfying foods which will not fatten.

Not to be humorous about it, perhaps the lemon and its savory juice holds the crowning place in list of nonfattening foods. Indeed, the lemon or its zesty juice will do more than any mere food can do, according to some beauty experts, it will positively reduce the weight of the unsophisticated one.

The unromantic and therefore unwelcome truth is that a lemon or two every morning or the juice thereof will probably increase the weight by precisely a fraction of the weight of the lemon or the juice.

Some very credulous fat folks seriously believe that by eating bread which bears a medical title or brand they can reduce, but the unpopular truth again is that any reduction of weight actually obtained while "dieting" on such bread is due solely to the general dietary restrictions, the intake of food and any exercise adhered to while the "treatment" is being tried.

I do not mean to convey the idea that all foods have the same nutritive value or that one will grow fat or lean regardless of what foods one eats. A pound of cheese will fatten one as much as 14 pounds of cabbage will, and a nut butter sandwich will keep one's waistline up to par just as effectively as two quarts of buttermilk will. The easiest thing in the world to grow fat on is good candy, and the hardest to achieve this disgrace with is iceberg lettuce but these are all good foods and have the proper place in a normal diet.

I think I understand what the unhappy individual in quest of nourishing but nonfattening foods really needs. She—only an occasional meal man wakes up to the disgrace of obesity before he is utterly overtaken by the insidious disease—she needs a warning against her present overindulgence in carbohydrates. The carbohydrates are so very good to eat—aye, nearly everything good to eat is more or less carbohydrate, that's just the trouble. Carbohydrates are about as easy to eat as one creature is to look at, and after bedtime is likely to prove ruinous if not kept within reasonable bounds.

With no desire to what pathological appetite I shall now mention the delectable carbohydrates which are mainly responsible for our rising national birth rate:

Sugar, glucose (in ice cream and candy), honey, the syrups, crackers, breakfast cereals, white bread, pancakes, potatoes, most proprietary infant foods, condensed milk, cookies, toast, biscuits, cornstarch, pie, pudding, cake.

In fact about everything nice to eat, except tobacco.

Sugar, potatoes and breakfast cereals are not fattening if one eats only reasonable quantities of them. More of this in another issue.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound based with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

Cocconut Oil Fine For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multiscent coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this cannot possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. Two or three teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Multiscent coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last everyone in the family for months.

OLD AGE
 "There's no such thing as age," says youth, "I never feel its pain; I see an old man tottering by and wonder at his cane."
 For I can walk where I choose and need no stick at all. And I can run against the wind and laugh at every fall.

"I hear the old men talk of care and wonder what they mean. I see the silver in their hair, their faces drawn and lean. I see the old men shake their heads where'er a breeze goes by And hear them sadly wondering who will be the next to die."

"I hear them grumble at the cold, but oh, my blood runs warm And it is good to face the wind and battle with the storm, And all my friends are young and strong and not a care have they— Old Age must be another world, and one that's far away."

Yes, age is just another world, and one that youth shall know, And they shall find its aches and pains and all the winds that blow, And they shall sigh as old men do and totter with a cane And dream about another world where youth is given again.

POLICE CHASE SUSPECT THRU PARK; HE ESCAPES

Samuel Overholtz Fights Off Thug in Midnight Theft Attempt

BULLETS FIRED UPON STORE

Other Prowler Calls Are Received From Western Part of City

Details of a thrilling battle between Samuel C. Overholtz, grocer at 1235 W. Market-st., and a burly colored highwayman early Sunday morning were retold by Overholtz Monday.

Arrival of the police and their chase of the bandit thru the suburban residence district into Laurel park and the marshy land near the Ottawa river was all that Overholtz could remember of the incident.

Overholtz was closing his small grocery store shortly before midnight when he observed a colored man trying to get in. He went to the door and asked him what he wanted and if he wanted to buy anything he could have it.

As the stranger stepped toward the door Overholtz observed he had a black mark over his eyes. It was on the grocer's attempt to retreat that the thug pulled out a revolver and ordered him to throw up his hands.

Overholtz, despite his deformity, is extremely quick and strong and seizing the highwayman's arm pushed the man away from his face. At the same time he lunged forward striking the man's forehead with the handle of the door.

The next thought that entered Overholtz's mind was to unmask the bandit. Still holding the revolver at the stranger's face, he made a lunge at the door but the former's foot caught in the doorway and he fell.

Overholtz, who was on his hands and knees, saw the man get up and run toward the store. He followed him and saw him enter the store.

TED IS LOCALED; ON WAY TO LIMA

Secret service men who have been trailing Ted for the past several days in an attempt to find where he has been hiding, found him Monday in Miami, Fla. He was waiting there for a street car and announced that he is on his way home.

A message that it's going to be cloudy around Lima and that it will probably snow either Monday or Tuesday. That snow they had Sunday night has made me homesick and as soon as the Airway Express leaves I'll be on my way. The southland is all right but I can get all this heat at home next summer. Right now I want to go skating.

A magazine found in the automobile had the word "Brennan" written on it. Mrs. Swigert's maiden name was Brennan.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren M. Swigert and their four-year-old daughter, R. F. D. No. 2, Freedom, Ohio, were absent from their home today, inquiry developed. Neighbors did not know their whereabouts.

BODIES IDENTIFIED—Akron relatives today received word that Loren Swigert, his wife and two-year-old daughter, were the victims of the crossing accident Sunday near Newton Falls. Swigert moved from Akron last fall to a farm near Freedom Station. He and his family left there Sunday for a visit. When neighbors went to the house this morning, they found it locked and identification of the bodies followed, according to the word received here.

INDICTMENTS RETURNED AGAINST GOVERNOR OF INDIANA

INDIANAPOLIS—(Associated Press)—Warren T. McCray, governor of Indiana, voluntarily appeared at the office of United States Marshal Meridith today and surrendered on two indictments returned by the federal grand jury Saturday.

The indictments charge the governor with using the mails in a scheme to defraud with violation of the national banking laws and with conspiracy to violate the national banking laws.

Representations as to his financial condition and as to the validity and character of "cattle paper" on which the governor obtained loans from banks throughout the Midwest are made the basis for the indictment charging use of the mails in a scheme to defraud.

One hundred and seventy banks the indictments charge, were defrauded. The national bank indictment was based on acts said to have been committed by the governor, while he was president of the Discount and Deposit Bank, at Kentland, Ind., from which he resigned just before his financial crash last August.

McCray is charged with misapplication of the funds of the bank, falsifying records and reports to the federal reserve bank in Chicago and abstraction of notes held by the banks.

The scheme by which McCray is said to have used the mails to defraud is set out at length.

WHEELER CALLED LIAR BY DOHENY

Naval Oil Reserve Lessee Hits Back at Critics

SENATORS ARE DENOUNCED

Foes of Daugherty Branded Character Assassins

NEW YORK—(United Press)—Edward L. Doheny, lessee of California naval oil reserves, about whom the senatorial investigation has revolved, fought back at his critics in an interview published today in the New York Tribune.

Playing the foe of Attorney General Daugherty, Doheny called Senator Borah and Senator Wheeler liars, accused the Democratic party of playing cheap politics at the expense of good men's characters and insisted there is no oil scandal.

The millionaire oil operator denounced senators demanding Daugherty's resignation as "character assassins," and "senators with chocolate spines."

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who is leading the investigation, is trying to become president, Doheny said.

"Senator Wheeler lied when he said Daugherty was a friend of mine," Doheny said, in the interview. "I met him only once and that was three years ago next May, at the Metropolitan club, with four other members of the cabinet."

"As for McLean, I have never seen him in my life, regardless of what Senator Wheeler says. He remarked 'everybody knows' about four times in his speech. That's a good name for him—'Everybody knows' Wheeler."

CALLED COWARD—"He is a coward that takes advantage of his immunity as a senator to make misstatements and 'everybody knows' he is a liar. Moreover, 'everybody knows' where he got his supposed information and that was from Gaston B. Means."

"Four years ago, Borah said that I had contributed $50,000 to Major General Wood's campaign fund. I was a delegate to the Democratic convention and voted more than 40 times for McAdoo at the time, so I wired him, asking him to correct his statement. Altho the telegram was read on the floor of the senate he said he had no reply. He stands convicted of lying."

Doheny derided the ousting of Secretary Denby "who had never been accused of wrong doing" and said the Democrats planned to bowl over one member of the cabinet after another like nine-pins and send them into office disgraced men.

He then paid his respects to the senators who come from the wheat-growing countries, which he said was suffering because of conditions in Europe.

"The Bolshevik senators," Doheny said, "are afraid of their constituents. They have chocolate eclairs spines. What we need in this oil affair is someone to pin down the people who are talking recklessly and say 'Who told you this? Where did you hear it?'"

"Most of them would have to admit, as did Mr. Vandenberg, the witness stand that they were simply hawking rumors."

"I tell you there is no oil scandal. There never has been any oil scandal. No one has been corrupted. If any one got advantages out of these oil leases it was the United States government."

CITY INVESTIGATES CONTRACTORS' STANDING

Financial standings of sewer contract companies and their ability to handle a job the size of the Jones intercepting sewer will be questioned before the contract is awarded.

City Manager C. A. Bingham announced Monday this precaution is taken to prevent any possible stoppage of the work after it is started.

Seven bids received Saturday noon, aggregated from approximately $300,000 to $357,000 with the State Construction Co., a Lima concern, the low bidder.

"The city wants to complete the work as soon as possible," Manager Bingham said, "but to prevent a recurrence of the Jones trouble I am thoroughly investigating each company."

U. S. GRAND JURY CITES M'CRAY

Governor of Indiana Indicted on New Charges

INDIANAPOLIS—(Associated Press)—The myriad financial difficulties of Warren T. McCray, governor of Indiana, have been augmented further by his indictment by the federal grand jury on charges of using the mails in a scheme to defraud and violation of the national banking laws.

These charges are included in a report made by the grand jury Saturday, but were not made public until today when the governor surrendered to the United States marshal who held copies for his arrest.

In addition to the latest charges brought against him, the governor's financial transactions have led to his indictment in the Marion-co criminal court on charges of embezzlement, larceny and false pretenses, bankruptcy proceedings against him in federal court and assignment of all his assets to a creditor's committee.

The indictment was handed down a week ago after an investigation during which time a number of Indiana and Chicago bankers appeared before the grand jury.

Harper Asks for New Hospitals

Immediate Purchase of Sites Opposed by Director

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Two new hospitals for feeble-minded are recommended by Welfare Director John E. Harper in his annual report Monday to Gov. Donahay. Harper, however, is opposed to the immediate purchase of land for sites for the hospitals.

The last general assembly appropriated $200,000 to purchase land for a site. Harper has refused to use the funds. In his report to the governor he said to purchase land before the general assembly has appropriated funds for buildings would be an economic waste.

Improvement of the state institutions at Orient and at Columbus is recommended as a means of taking care of the large number of feeble-minded on "waiting lists" in various counties.

Increasing facilities for production at the state prison farm at London and the installation of a flour mill, cannery and other industries there are recommended. The flour mill, with a capacity of 45,000 barrels a year and the cannery will be started as soon as the new administration building at the farm is completed, Harper said.

Harper declared he saw no possibility of changing the location of the penitentiary for a number of years and recommended extensive improvements in the prison. He would tear out the old stone cell block, known as the "wet cell block," which he describes as a relic of the last century. He would replace this with sanitary steel cells of knock-down construction that can be moved to the new prison when it is built.

Harper also wants to purchase a new brick plant to provide brick for the state highway department and building program of the state institutions. The report shows the capacity from 50,000 a day to 70,000. This is not sufficient to meet the demands from the market, according to Harper.

BINGHAM'S NEGOTIATIONS BRING OUT OF $1,100 IN CITY LIGHTING EXPENSE

In an agreement between City Manager C. A. Bingham and Lima National Gas Co. the city stands to save $1,100 for street lighting for three months, starting March 1 and ending May 31.

Under the franchise held by the gas company, charges of poor service, incurred by Manager Bingham, resulted in a conference with gas company officials and the agreement for reduced rates. Manager Bingham said in a letter to commissioners.

Monthly lighting expense for gas lights aggregates $718 for streets other than those lighted by the boulevard system, according to figures obtained at the city hall, and with approval of Manager Bingham's recommendation for acceptance of the agreement the city will get street lighting service at less than half the franchise price.

Dear Miss Smart:

I have no hair in my going about with the man you mentioned. There is very little difference in your age and if you two are not good friends, I can't see where your friendship would be of any harm. Dear Miss Smart:

Will you please give me the address of some high society girl who is a beauty? I want to know what is used for wrinkles? Many thanks, M. L.

If you will send me a stamped-addressed envelope, I will send you the names of several high society girls. Massage the wrinkles with coconut butter, which is heavy and fattening and may be used for the neck and chest but should not be used on the face. The following remedy is also for wrinkles: one ounce of white wax, spermaceti, 1 ounce; sweet almond oil, 2 ounces; and olive oil, 2 ounces. Melt and add one ounce of orange flower water. Massage your face with this at night, about three times a week.

Sure Way to Get Rid of Dandruff

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to comb or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it; then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you may have. This simple remedy never fails.

Something of the charm of the Spanish senorita has been caught in this summer frock of Roshanara, a dress that uses deep silk fringe and hand-painted flowers to such good advantage.

Outside the novelty of the trimming the dress is simple enough and cut on the easy comfortable lines that characterize the mode.

STONE AGE RUINS DUG UP IN CHINA, PROFESSOR SAYS

STOCKHOLM—Discoveries made in China by J. G. Anderson, a Swedish scientist, establish in his belief that China had a stone age. At Fengtien, the expedition headed by Prof. Anderson, excavated a cave about 8 by 18 feet. In it were found bones from about 40 human bodies and a large number of objects, none of which was of metal. The objects included arrowheads, stone axes, bone awls, curious stone rings and a tiny piece of animal sculpture made of marble, fragments of remarkable vessels, some with pressed geometrical patterns and others with a polished red surface ornamented boldly in black. Prof.

Anderson dates the civilization between the bronze age, or ab. B. C.

Large collections of were found at Yangling, specimens of red stone objects similar to those at Fengtien. Heretofore it has been believed that there was no stone age in China.

Quinn—West of the Water Tower—Glenn Hunter with Ernest Torrence and May McAvoy. A Paramount picture which opened a week's stay at the Faurot.

BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM
Lima is a small town and realism is handled expertly in "West of the Water Tower." Glenn Hunter's new Paramount picture which opened a week's stay at the Faurot.

They are leading sensational in a series of incidents as might be expected in a small town like the town of Homer Croy's novel. It is in the simplicity, the directness of the uncompromising representation of the mind of the town and the wavering youth that the picture is a masterpiece of realism. The characters are so realistically drawn that you feel you are in the town. Glenn Hunter gives a notable performance of the wayward youth. Ernest Torrence as the father is more harsh and yet at the same time wins new sympathy. George Fawcett, as the town doctor, and May McAvoy as the girl, also give remarkable performance.

The story tells of the reckless love of a young plumber, son of an orthodox minister, and a girl, daughter of a farmer. The father's disapproval of an infidel and the mother's disapproval of a girl who is a neighbor of the pool room, are the main obstacles to the young couple's union. The picture is a masterpiece of realism and the story is so well told that you feel you are in the town.

West of the Water Tower is a picture that will not soon forget. It is a picture with humor, pathos and happy blended.

WAR LORD FACES TREASON CHARGE

General Ludendorff Will be Put on Trial Tomorrow

ADOLF HITLER ALSO ACCUSED

Outgrowth of Uprising Last November in Bavaria

MUNICH — (United Press) — General Ludendorff, one of Germany's greatest war lords, will be tried for treason tomorrow, together with Adolf Hitler and seven others. Elaborate police precautions were taken today to prevent possibility of a monarchist coup.

The trial, which will be conducted by a Bavarian court of seven judges, will be held at the war academy. The crime of which Ludendorff and Hitler were accused was of plotting against the state. They are charged with leading the infamous beer cellar putsch of November 18, 1923, which dethroned the king and installed a puppet government.

The "Beer Patriots," as they came to be known, swore to march on Berlin. They declared they would rid the country of Marxism, Socialism and Jews and rebuild a better Vaterland.

On the night of the putsch, ex-Dictator Von Kahr, who resigned last Friday, was named "national administrator" and Ludendorff head of the army.

The central government immediately laid an embargo against Bavaria and lack of unity among the beer cellar patriots did the rest.

Ludendorff was captured after a skirmish near one of the Munich state buildings. He was placed under "protective arrest" and gave his word not to engage in further treasonable activities. Hitler fled to the mountains and was captured. He was jailed while Ludendorff was made virtually a prisoner in his own villa.

Strong pressure has been brought to bear on Ludendorff's behalf in view of his war services. Field Marshal Von Hindenburg has been asked to intercede in Ludendorff's behalf but has refused.

Interference Being Eliminated

Interference is a part of the radio game, there have been interference problems ever since the second sending set went into action—and all of these problems have been solved. This has been done without shutting down any class of stations, in fact all classes of service have steadily increased.

In the working out of radio problems it is well to begin by recognizing the fact that ship-to-ship and ship-to-shore radio is more important than all other sorts of radio combined in a lump. For ship service, radio can not be replaced—there is nothing else. If other services interfere with ship radio then those other services should be made to stand back, even if that involves scrapping every broadcasting station and every amateur station and every trans-oceanic station in operation today. The ship service has premier right—when it interferes with another service that is too bad—but the other service hasn't much of a case.

Next it is well to recognize that for ship service, especially for small ships, the spark set is likely to be useful for some years to come. We cannot reasonably expect a ship to install a transmitter so costly that the ship's business cannot possibly pay for it—and tube sets are very costly.

Next after that one may as well admit that the ship's operator is perfectly justified in working traffic on waves in the broadcast band of wavelengths—even when he knows that he is raising thunder with the reception of all manner of telephonic matter. His traffic is the most important stuff in the ether—it has a perfect right to tear a hole thru radiophone material if necessary. Nevertheless the Radio Corporation and the Department of Commerce are attempting to minimize the transmission of 450 and 300 meters and are replacing the spark sets with tubes as fast as possible.

There is nothing in it for them—they are merely demonstrating the spirit of cooperation that underlies radio in many branches. Still they cannot replace all sets today—many operators will continue to use sparks (especially on foreign ships) and not a few of them will be compelled to use 450 and 300 meters when the jam gets too thick on 600 meters. Gun and bear it!

The amateur can show that he has good intentions for the first time in the "quiet hours" and observed them tolerably well in many places. The majority of him are today engaged in "rudding" the man who still uses a spark set. So effectively have the sparks been "rudded" that today they form a disappearing minority—although they were used in all amateur sets a few years ago. In this count the amateur has gone far beyond the commercial firms, partly because his fellows will so unmercifully denounce him for using a spark, partly because he can afford to change equipment better than can a commercial station that must generate dividends.

Radio Amateurs Act as

Amateur interference is decreasing in the country at large, partly because the amateur station is improving rapidly because the radio phone listener's receiving set is improving.

Interference elimination does not depend on the number of tubes in the set, and it doesn't depend on the goodness of the coils and condensers, provided only that one will avoid the use of a single-circuit tuner which is peculiarly vulnerable to some classes of interference especially nearby stations and sparks. It is quite possible to build low-priced and simple sets that are very selective at little expenditure and then again it is quite possible to build high-priced sets that are simply unmentionable.

Speaking of the law—no one can be less pleased with the ancient radio law (it was born in 1912) than the amateur. The Radio Corporation isn't pleased with the law the broadcast interests are not pleased, the Government isn't, and the amateur is least pleased of all. Amateurs sat on Secretary Hoover's conference board and determined the present regulations of the Department, and they rooted for the passage of the White Bill—but Congress never got to that. The amateur will be the listener's ally in bringing the law up to date and he will do it thru the American Radio Relay League as far as possible.

Minute Men

When all press and commercial telegraph wires connecting Chicago with the rest of the world, except those leading to the north thru Canada, were put out of commission by the most terrific sleet storm of the winter, representatives of two press associations depended on radio and the American Radio Relay League to get press thru the world's last relay point.

One of the several important stories handled was a bulletin on the Chicago, Minn., mine disaster, giving a list of the dead which the newspaper correspondent addressed to an office in New York City. This message was handled by 9BQQ of Minneapolis who gave it to SAA, C. E. Nicolson of Lima, who in turn gave it to Cleveland 9BQQ D. H. Hebert of Minneapolis stuck to his set for three nights with only three hours sleep in order to get news and private messages out.

While the regular commercial operators were frantically trying to get their eastern news thru Canada to Winnipeg and St. Paul, Don C. Wallace, 9ZT of Minneapolis, and assistant division manager of the A. R. R. L. acted as radio "Paul Revere" calling amateur minute men to fill the breach.

By the time the storm was in full swing sorts of amateurs in the vicinity of Chicago and Minneapolis were accepting and relaying hundreds of messages of all descriptions. Although their territory was not immediately affected to stand by, men in other districts hearing town reports and "urgent" calls swung their stations into line for relaying traffic to distant points, and continued to do so until telegraph wire connection was again established.

Tuning Notes

SAY you DXers have you heard KGO, the General Electric station at Oakland, California yet? Carefully follow these instructions and you should be able to hear them any good night. This station broadcasts only on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, beginning at 10 p. m. Lima time. KGO broadcasts on a wavelength of kilocycles of 312 meters. The easiest way to find them is to pick up one of the Cincinnati stations and then slowly and carefully tune up toward KDKA's wavelength. You must tune slowly and listen sharply as this station is over two thousand miles away and it is too much to expect their signals to knock the "cans" off your ears.

Believe This?

A popular British "wireless" magazine recently published the following in "A Review of American Broadcasting Conditions":

The American broadcasting stations are not generally so well designed or appointed as our own, although they appear to be more particular about the regulation of their wavelength. After a careful comparison of conditions in America and at home, the conclusion is that, although American manufacturers have had considerable more experience, and to a certain extent, more public support than have had our own, still, the British listeners have a broadcasting service equal and in many respects superior to their American neighbors.

What do you think about this? Yes, so do we.

This seems an opportune time to mention that WJAZ or 9XX the Zenith-Edgewater Beach station has been heard in Samoa, 12 degrees south of the equator, by the naval station VMG.

Wonder what the Britisher's DX (distance) record is?

Amateur Interference

There still seems to be some misunderstanding about the time that the amateur must stand by. The States government, to stand by between the hours of 8 and 10:30 p. m. local standard time. At all other times they have full legal right to transmit. As Lima does not have a regular broadcasting station the amateurs are not required to stand by for church services; but the local boys have voluntarily agreed to stand by for the church services from WJZ, the station of the Detroit News. This station was picked as it is believed to be the one most satisfactorily received.

If you are getting interference, that you know to be amateur interference, at any other time except between 8 and 10:30, the only thing that can be done is to get rid of your single circuit receiver, or use a wave trap. If you already have a two or three circuit tuner it would help greatly to learn to tune it sharply.
